

New Pulse Daily Insights App - Targeting June Launch

Goal - leverage Pulse content to engage our target community, showcase value, and generate leads.

- Free App available via Android and Apple 🙌
 - Additional feed via private SIGNAL group
 - Limited geography
- Minimal functionality and engagement. Start simple and expand as warranted.
- Useful and unique content but don't give away the store
 - Summary/headlines of Pulse Insight
 - Key events or news via Discovery Chat
 - Snippets of larger reports or survey results
- Soft launch & testing in May. Public launch in June.
- Promotion via website, linkedin, campaigns, events, but mostly word of mouth.

Kremlin propagandists seek influencer status on Iran & international diplomacy

6 days ago

Kremlin accounts continued space-related messaging following Russian leader Vladimir Putin's recent visit to a Moscow university, where he praised Russian international cooperation in space-related efforts. There were 62 tweets by Kremlin accounts mentioning Russian space exploration between 14-17 April 2025. We assess the Kremlin will continue to look for ways to distract from unflattering narrative about its actions in Ukraine by offering counter-narratives that present friendly, responsible Russia concerned with the global good.
